Staff: Barden Culbreth and Barry Bloch

Guests: Patsy Wilson, Phil Lanier, Ralph Fuller, Rafe Rountree, Robbie Church, and Robert Church

Call to Order: Jimmie Storie called the meeting to order.

Ethics Awareness Statement: Steve Stroud read the Ethics Awareness statement and asks for any potential conflicts. None were heard.

Jimmie welcomed the numerous guests to the meeting. Boardmember Jason Walls introduced himself to the Board. Walls had previously only been able to attend meetings via conference call.

Approval of Meetings: Steve Bright motioned to approve the minutes, and Steve Stroud seconded. The minutes were approved.

Treasurer's Report: Steve Stroud motioned for approval of the Treasurer's Report. Jason Walls seconded and the report was accepted.

Continuing Education and Examination Committee: A-B Technical Community College submitted an application. Steve Stroud motioned for approval, Steve Bright seconded and the sponsor was approved.

Jimmie reported on the August 2012 examination he proctored. Three persons failed the test.

There were requests following the test to purchase the study guide. Ralph Fuller reported that he had several and $125 to deliver to the Board office.

Jimmie asked if there was a specific way to post upcoming classes (not providers) on the website. Barden said he would be happy to work with the staff to deliver this information to the public.

Jimmie recognized Phil Lanier's contribution to the committee.

Attorney Update: Barry Bloch presented an update on Dan Eisner to clarify the Board's position. Barry stated he would advance on the Eisner case. Steve Stroud motioned for Barry Bloch to have a Cease and Desist, and follow the necessary steps afterwards, to include an injunction. Steve Bright seconded and the motion was carried.

Barry presented House Bill 799 from the 2011-2012 North Carolina General Assembly which allows for licensure by endorsement. He requested a budget of 30 minutes to review current statute and the new requirements. Steve Stroud motioned for approval and Steve Bright seconded and the motion was approved.

Ethics Committee: The Committee is dismissing one case and moving ahead with two others.

New Business: Approval of FY2012-2013 Randolph Cloud and Associates contract was presented for renewal. Alan presented that the Board was still unable to cover many of his obligations and that the Board would present a 5% increase as opposed to 10% increase in fees to Randolph Cloud and Associates.

Steve Stroud presented the FY2012-2013 budget with the understanding that the fee to Randolph Cloud may be modified.

Old Business: Rule changes were presented to be published.

Public Comment: Jimmie opened the floor to Robert Church who is dealing with a disgruntled customer. Robert Church has submitted a letter regarding the ownership of biting material. The Church's were seeking information on the clarity of the law as it relates to biting.

Next meeting planned for October 24, 2012 at K&W Burlington.

Steve Stroud motioned to adjourn, Steve Bright seconded and the meeting ended.
